

PRESERVING OUR PAST THROUGH PERFORMANCE™

A RIDE INTO HISTORY WORKSHOP

FOR EVERYONE WHO WANTS TO BRING THE STORIES OF THE PAST TO LIFE

EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY!

Ride into History 2886 N. Hwy 99, four miles south of Admire, KS

Admire is on Hwy 99 one mile south of Hwy 56 (fuel service with credit card)

From northeast and southwest: I-335 to Osage City/Council Grove/Admire exit, west on Hwy 56 three miles to Hwy 99, south on Hwy 99 5 miles

From the south: take Hwy 99 north out of Emporia from ESU about 15 miles (watch for the curve that follows the highway or you'll end up in Allen)

From the north: take Hwy 99 south past Hwy 56, four miles south of Admire

From the west: take Hwy 56 through Herington and Council Grove to Hwy 99 (22 miles) and turn south onto 99 for five miles

Saturday and Sunday, March 2-3, 2019

In a comfortable atmosphere that takes history seriously while having fun doing “sneaky history,” learn how to create a first person narrative of a historic figure or composite character

Space is limited. Preregistration is required. Bring your biographical materials or use ours—we can help you select a character.

Saturday, March 2

- 9:00 Door opens. Light breakfast provided, eat at your leisure (caffeine, chocolate, and healthy snacks available all day)
